

Introducing Nausea-Bag

Put an end to time-consuming messes and exposure to dangerous bacteria with Cleanwaste's Nausea-Bag. Now, meticulously designed and engineered with Microban technology, the Sani-Bag+ is setting a new standard of care. The Nausea-Bag is a clean and safe lining for vomit receptacles that forms an effective barrier against diseases.

PROTECTED BY
MICROBAN

The Nausea-Bag:

- Prevents Infections: No spills and no contact
- Flexible: Can be used anywhere, anytime
- Easy to Use: Pre-loaded with a NASA-developed powder that deodorizes, controls bacteria and absorbs liquids
- Preserves Dignity: No lingering waste and no clean up means better worker and patient morale

Where is Nausea-Bag Used?

It's ideal for hospital, nursing home, home health, assisted living, and transportation (car/plane, amusement parks, motion sickness).

Product Highlights:

- Nausea-Bag contains a NASA Gel Polymer
- Nausea-Bag can be disposed of in regular trash
- Nausea-Bag needs to be disposed after one use.

Safety

- Prevents contact with human waste
- Gel powder eliminates splashing and spilling
- Easy closure for mess-free disposal

Dignify

- Gels up to 32 oz. waste in 10-15 seconds
- Controls odor which lessens distress
- Can be used without caregiver assistance

Peace of Mind

- Set up and disposal take seconds
- No cleaning or disinfecting needed
- Breaks waste down faster with degradable additive

Ask your sales associate for a free sample.

cleanwastemedical.com

Interested in learning more?
Scan here!

